Privacy Policy

Please keep for your records.

The GMC Cascaders respects your privacy. This policy documents how the club uses and protects the personal information you have provided us.

When you complete our club membership form, we request specific information about you and your motorhome. The information you provide is retained by the club as long as you are a member in good standing.

Your information is used in the following ways:

1. Club membership roster: The roster contains a list of current club members, and includes the following personal information: name(s), address, email(s), phone number(s).
2. Email distribution list: The web master maintains a master email list for official club communications.
3. Member information may be used to secure reservations for club events.

Is your information shared?

1. The club does not share your information with other organizations, businesses or individuals that are not members of the club.
2. The club roster is shared with all club members. It is available in the Members Only section of the club web site (password required to access). The roster is also sent out periodically in electronic form to the club member email distribution list.
3. The club web site (<http://www.gmc-cascaders.com/>) does not collect or share data about you. Links to sites that are not hosted under the gmc-cascaders domain are not covered by this policy.

Member Responsibility

Members are encouraged to safeguard the club roster appropriately to ensure that no one's personal information is at risk. The club is not responsible for unauthorized access that may occur on any member device.

Club members shall not share, copy, reuse or otherwise redistribute personal information provided through club documents without consent.

Club members should consider other's privacy when posting event photographs and other club related information online, including social media, blogs and personal web sites.

Member Consent

Beginning in 2020, the new Membership Application and Annual Membership Renewal forms will include a consent to provide your information to the club and have it shared as described above. Any member that wishes to limit the distribution of their information should indicate their preference on these forms.

Changes to the privacy policy will be announced at the business meeting during club events, by email and/or the club newsletter.

If you have questions about the club privacy policy, please contact the current president.
